

Hamilton Company Microlab 600 Diluter Dispensers

Unmatched Accuracy and Precision.

Increased throughput and accuracy, reduced cost and waste.

Every laboratory has tasks that are too small to automate and too large to reliably accomplish by hand. The Microlab 600 is a semi-automated liquid handler designed specifically for these in-between applications. The Microlab 600 increases throughput and consistency while reducing cost and wasted buffer. Common industries utilising the Microlab 600 are:

- Forensics
- Environmental Analysis
- Mining
- Manufacturing
- And many more
